2. APMAA 2018 Conference Call for Papers (Parallel sessions)

Greeting from Masaaki Aoki, Parallel Session Chair of APMAA 2018 Conference

APMAA 2018 Parallel sessions will be held on October 30th (Monday) and 31st (Tuesday) at the Waseda Campus of Waseda University, Tokyo. It is a great honor to hold the 14th APMAA conference in Japan.

As we agree, Asian countries have become the major growth engine of the development of global economy. We all admit that management accounting plays an important role to create corporate value. Companies in Asia have created various kinds of striking management accounting systems. The main theme of APMAA 2018 conference "The Forefront Management Accounting: Research and Practices" means that the year conference will focus on practices of Asian companies and try to develop fundamental management accounting theory in the parallel session. In this sense, APMAA can contribute to future management accounting research. We believe that presentations in the parallel sessions will be the starting point of new management accounting research from APMAA.

APMAA Japan will strongly support parallel sessions by providing most appropriate and satisfactory reviewing processes. Waseda university provides fabulous facilities and staffs. We would like to devote much effort to the success of the parallel sessions.

Please submit your papers to APMAA 2018. We sincerely wish your attendance to the parallel sessions. Thank you.

3. Doctoral Colloquium Call for Papers

Greeting from Shoichiro Hosomi, APMAA 2018 Doctoral Colloquium Chair

APMAA 2018 Doctoral Colloquium will be held on Monday, October 29th at the Waseda Campus of Waseda University, Tokyo, in conjunction with the APMAA 2018 Conference.

The doctoral colloquium provides a unique opportunity for doctoral students to develop their research ideas, to learn about the challenges of conducting research and building a successful academic career, and to broaden their professional network. The colloquium has the following objectives:

- Provide a setting where students can present their work and meet other students,
- Provide feedback on students' current research and guidance on future research directions,
- Offer each student comments and fresh perspectives on their work from researchers and students outside their own institution,
- Promote the development of a supportive community of scholars and a spirit of collaborative research, and
- Contribute to the conference goals through interaction with other researchers and conference events.

At the APMAA 2018 Doctoral Colloquium, students can receive high-quality feedback from external reviewers and directly interact with peers, exchange ideas, discuss concepts, and establish (in) formal cooperation with various research groups. Doctoral students and candidates at all stages are welcome to submit a thesis-position paper, but preference will be given to students in the earlier stages of their doctoral work. You are welcome to participate in this Colloquium.

Participants (doctoral students and candidates) are hereby invited to present and discuss their preliminary results or work-in-progress. They are expected to give short and informal presentations of their work during the Colloquium, to be followed by a panel-like discussion. The discussants comprise of a group of international professors.

Doctoral students interested in participating in the doctoral colloquium should submit a single PDF file consisting of:

1. An introductory letter in which you indicate what you wish to obtain from the doctoral colloquium and what you will be bringing to the doctoral colloquium.
2. A one-page research statement on the research field you will pursue. If you are at the doctoral dissertation stage, this statement should focus on the dissertation.
3. Your CV.
4. A letter of recommendation from your primary dissertation advisor, who should state what you could contribute as well as gain from the doctoral consortium.
5. Your paper (The text should be about 4,000- 8,000 words.).

Paper Submission (Doctoral Colloquium):

The deadline for full paper submissions is July 10th, 2018.

The notification of acceptance is September 1st, 2018.

Submitted online

Your paper for the APMAA 2018 Doctoral Colloquium should be submitted at http://s-ueno.sakura.ne.jp/APMAA_2018_Tokyo/Paper_Submissions_.htm (We will open the paper submission site after April 1st, 2018).

The submitted paper should clearly state:

- An overview of related work in the area of the doctoral work

- The original key idea/hypothesis of the thesis
- The problem domain and the specific problem addressed
- Methodological approach
- The expected contributions
- Research carried out

The colloquium chairs will arrange the selection of the accepted papers using a peer review process. The accepted papers will be published in the Doctoral Colloquium proceedings. At least one of the authors should register for the conference before the deadline of conference registration (September 15th, 2018), and attend as well as present the paper in the conference. Otherwise, the paper will not be included in the conference program and proceedings.

Notification:

- 1) The first author should be a doctoral student who is mainly responsible for conducting the research on the respective topic.
- 2) Names of the authors are preceded by: first author and, where applicable, supervisor.
- 3) The author should register (pay the participation fee) for the conference before the deadline of conference registration (September 15th, 2018).
