About Us

Academic researchers gathered at the Asian Management Forum held in Fukuoka, Japan, on November 3, 2002. We proposed to create the Asian Management Accounting Association.

Based on the proposal, the Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Association (APMAA) was founded in 2004. Since then, members have met annually to share the vision of advancing various disciplines, research, and practices in accounting.

The association has grown steadily and, today has become a leading association of scholars in management and accounting.

APMAA Top Management

In addition to their leadership, APMAA Top Management have steadily and solidly committed themselves to the quality management of the association.

The 2004 (2nd) Annual Forum, Shah Alam, Malaysia

November 24-25, 2004

Management Accounting – Evolutionary Tool for Corporate Success

The venue was Universiti Teknologi MARA, Malaysia (UiTM), Shah Alam. Prof. Rahman, Ibrahim Kamal Abdul hosted. The theme was “Management Accounting – Evolutionary Tool for Corporate Success.” Two hundred people attended, including those from Japan, Singapore, Thailand, and Malaysia. It was decided to form the Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Association (APMAA). The name Asian Management Accounting Association was changed to Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Association. Prof Akira Nishimura, Kyushu University Japan, was selected as the first president of APMAA.

The 2006 (3rd) Annual Forum, Fukuoka, Japan

March 30-31, 2006

Present and Future of Management Accounting

The 2006 (3rd) Annual Forum, hosted by Prof. Akira Nishimura, was held at Hotel Fukuoka Garden Palace, Japan. The 3rd Forum was initially scheduled to be held in Singapore in 2005 but was canceled. The Forum attracted more than 40 participants, including 8 international participants: China (2), Korea (1), Malaysia (2), Singapore(1), Taiwan(1), and Hong Kong(1).

Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Journal (APMAJ)

The APMAJ first issue (Vol. 1 No. 1) was published in Dec. 2006. In 2010, the journal issues increased from once to twice a year.

The APMAA Conference is one of the main source of papers for the journal.

Manuscripts submitted to the Journal are normally reviewed by two referees for evaluation, using a double blind review procedure. Currently APMAJ is indexed in international Ebscohost and Cabell's Directories. ARI has also submitted APMAJ for possible inclusion and to be indexed by SCOPUS.

The 2008 Annual Forum, Bangkok, Thailand

October 17 (Friday) -20 (Sunday), 2008

The Forum planned to be held at Chulalongkorn University from 17 to 20 October 2008, was cancelled due to the political crisis in Thailand.

The anti-Thaksin demonstrators under the People's Alliance for Democracy (PAD) surrounded Parliament and Government Buildings. The APMAA conference hotel was a short distance away. The cancellation was a hard decision for Prof. Dr. Duangmanee Komaratat, the 2008 conference chair, and to all APMAA members.

The 2009 (5th) Annual Forum, Beppu, Japan

October 31- November 2, 2009

Hosted by Professor. Dr. Akira Nishimura, this Forum was held at Beppu University, Japan. More than 50 researchers and managers participated, including 9 international participants. Prof. Scarbrough and Prof. Alpenberg were the first participants outside of the Asia-Pacific Regions. Prof. Dr. Susumu Ueno was nominated as the APMAA 2nd president. Fifteen professors were designated as 2010 steering committee members.

2010 Plan: Improving the Visibility of APMAA

APMAA No. 1: 23 November 2009

APMAA NEWS

An excerpt from Opening Remarks
by Incoming President Prof. Susumu Ueno,
November 5, 2010

APMAA must attract more people to join. We must enhance people's awareness by fully utilizing our communication vehicles. To get on the growth track, we have four vehicles now:

Annual Forums (November since 2002),
Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Journal (Dec. 2006),
APMAA NEWS (Nov. 2009-), and
APMAA.asia (Jan. 2010-), our web-site

We aspire to double the number of Forum participants within a few years.

We also aspire to attract participants from more countries.

In parallel with increasing members, we will upgrade the quality of our activities.

We're thrilled to announce the tremendous success of the 2024 APMAA Bangladesh Chapter Webinar on June 1st! Thanks to your invaluable support and participation, the webinar attracted 1,134 registrants from over 16 countries, with representatives from 51 universities worldwide.

This webinar was a collaborative effort between the Asia-Pacific Management Accounting Association (APMAA), the Bangladesh Accounting Association (BAA), and the Institute of Cost and Management Accountants of Bangladesh (ICMAB).

We extend our deepest gratitude to the distinguished speakers and engaged audience who fostered insightful discussions on the evolving role of accounting in our dynamic global landscape.
